THE NOTICES

Chelsea Flower Show

The Chelsea Flower Show opens this week and it will bring many visitors to Sloane Square and Holy Trinity Church. Could you help to be part of the welcome we offer by serving teas and coffee in our Patio Garden from Tuesday 23 May to Saturday 27 May? If you are able to help, please let the Parish Office know as soon as possible.

Bexley Seabury Seminary

We welcome to the Sung Eucharist today visitors from the Bexley Seabury Seminary in Ohio, USA who are spending a week in London observing the life of the Church in London

Mass migration

Mass migration is one of the biggest challenges facing us today. In his latest book, 'The New Mass Migration' Prince Asfa-Wossen Asserate makes a passionate plea for Europe to engage more actively in its relationship with Africa. Prince Asserate is the great nephew of Haile Selassie I, Emperor of Ethiopia from 1930-1974, and is coming to speak to us at Holy Trinity about these urgent themes on Wednesday 24 May. The event is jointly sponsored by our Refugee Crisis Response Group and the Ginko Foundations.

The programme for the evening is:

6.30pm Eucharist
7.00pm Drinks reception
7.30pm Lecture.
All are welcome!

St Saviour's Patronal Festival

St. Saviour's Church was consecrated at Ascensiontide in 1840 and we have revived the tradition of celebrating the church's Feast of Title on Ascension Day. This year, as well as our own Intermission actors, the West End Gospel Choir and the Knightsbridge School Senior Choir will be taking part in the Festival Eucharist on Thursday 25 May at 7pm. The guest preacher will be the Revd. Peterson Feital, London Missioner for the Creative Industries. Please join us for this wonderful act of worship.

Beating of the Bounds

Next Sunday (May 28) we are beating the bounds of the parish as part of the 'Thy kingdom come' initiative, sponsored by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, to pray that God's kingdom might come in the life of our parish and our parishioners. Why not join us for this two-hour prayer walk (or as much as you can manage) that begins in Sloane Square at 3pm.

Pentecost Bring and Share Lunch in the Parish Room

Our next bring and share lunch takes place in the Parish Room on Sunday 4 June at 1pm after the 11am Sung Eucharist. This is Pentecost Sunday and we will be celebrating the birthday of the Christian Church. Please sign up on the sheet on the Welcome Desk so we have an idea of how many people are coming and what you plan to bring and share.

General Election 2017

'The General Election on June 8 presents our nation with an opportunity to determine its future for the next five years. The Archbishops of Canterbury and York have written a Pastoral Letter to help us consider our approach to the issues. You can find the letter here:

We will be staging an Election Question Time at Holy Trinity on Tuesday 6 June at 7pm. I am pleased that each of the candidates standing for election in the Chelsea and Fulham Parliamentary Constituency have agreed to attend to answer our questions. Whether you live in this neighbourhood or not, the Church you belong to has a duty to articulate the needs of its parish and we can all contribute to this important task.' Fr. Nicholas

New kneeler for the High Altar

A piano recital to raise funds for the creation of a new kneeler for the High Altar takes place on Thursday June 22 at 7.30pm. Edmund Lee, a member of the congregation, will perform music by Bach, Chopin, Liszt, Prokofiev Rachmaninov and Scriabin. Tickets are on sale in church from today from Edmund and at the door on the night at £15 each.
